Experience Champion Comfort 365 Windows®
Replacing your old windows is an investment that can pay dividends immediately and for a lifetime. So how do you know when it is time to upgrade yours? Here are 5 signs:

1 YOUR ENERGY BILLS ARE ON THE RISE
   Properly performing windows should insulate your home throughout the year. If your utility bills are up, your old windows could easily be the culprit.

2 YOUR HOME IS DRAFTY
   According to the U.S. Department of Energy, most homes have so many air leaks that it is like leaving a window open 24 hours a day, all year long. Those drafts could be your old windows inadequately sealing and protecting your home.

3 YOUR WINDOWS ARE FOGGING UP
   Stagnant and frozen moisture on your old windows can lead to long-term damage to your home, higher energy bills, and even cause health issues for you and your family.

4 YOUR WINDOWS DO NOT OPEN EASILY
   Properly operating windows should open and close effortlessly. If you live in an older home with original windows, or if your windows have been painted over, it may be time to upgrade to new ones.

5 YOUR FRAMES ARE IN POOR CONDITION
   Windowsills and frames that have warping, wood rot, and other deterioration are more than unsightly; they can pose a security risk and spike your energy bills.
